

DEARDOFF DIGEST

September 2019

Hello friends of Deardoff! There are a lot of new and exciting things happening here at the Center. First, I would like to introduce myself as your new director. My name is Taylor Mayne and I am a 2014 graduate of Franklin High School. Go Wildcats! I am also a 2018 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. I am so pleased to be a part of this community and will enjoy being able to provide a fun and relaxing environment for all of you to come to. My goal is to grow Deardoff's community by adding new activities to our calendar to help keep our community active.

With that being said, it seems we are lacking in the volunteer department. Without the help of volunteers it is hard to have an abundance of different activities available and even harder to acquire new ones. I am willing to help set up committees so that we can get new events underway and even possibly bring back old ones (such as Breakfast Club). I will have a binder set up in the main room for members to come in and sign up for committees they would like to be on.

NEW NEWS

Some of you may have already noticed the message on our bulletin board about a new attendance award program. This program is to help maintain our community and also a way for you to get fun prizes at carry in!

Here's how it works:

Every time you come in to the Deardoff Senior Center just to say hello and see what is happening that day you get a ticket to enter into the drawing, if you participate in an activity you receive two tickets, and if you volunteer for an event or activities you receive three tickets. At the monthly carry-in one name will be drawn for a prize and the prize will change to something new each month. Get your tickets by finding the Director that day!

I am also looking for about 5-10 members willing to volunteer their time to make homemade dog biscuits to hand out at the annual Bark-tober Fest at Hunter Park on October 5th. You can either make them in your own home to bring in for me to bag or here at the center if you don't want to make a mess in your own kitchen.
