PARKING at Deardoff

*Please refrain from parking in the 3 spots between the building and the dumpster, those are RESERVED for the transportation bus.

Don't forget... after each activity you participate in, take responsibility to check around you and clean if necessary.

*Beginning immediately, we will no longer be a drop-off location for used medicine bottles.

SPOTLIGHT ON

Tom Hart

Tom Hart has turned another year older (Happy belated)! He was born on September 22nd in Dayton, Ohio.

Tom enjoys reading the newspaper and his favorite food is Liver & Onions. Tom lights up the Deardoff Senior Center with his quick wit and happy spirit.

Tom's hero is Abe Lincoln.

Tom's hobby is tin work. He has made many beautiful items. His favorite thing about the Deardoff Center is playing Euchre.

SPOTLIGHT ON

Eleanor Axiotes

Miss Eleanor was born and raised in Franklin OH. For 90 years she has graced this town with her smile.

October is a special month as she will turn another year older on the 14th.

Eleanor was lucky enough to have met Stan "The Man" Musial.

Eleanor's hero is her father, Flip Phillips because he was always present.

Eleanor loves peanut butter and watching Golden Girls and Foyle's War. She also enjoys the song Happy Birthday.

Eleanor's favorite thing about Deardoff is the welcoming people.
